DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On June 26, 2018, Anderson Roy Dunn, III ("Petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that he suffered Guillain-Barre Syndrome. (Petition at 1). On February 13, 2020, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. (EFC No. 47).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated June 8, 2020, (ECF No. 50), requesting a total award of $18,210.43 (representing $15,320.50 in fees and $2,889.99 in costs). Pursuant to General Order #9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that he incurred no out-of-pocket expenses in pursuit of his claim. (ECF No. 50-3). Respondent did not file a response.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. § 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $18,210.43 (representing $15,320.50 in fees and $2,889.99 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
